Mr. Justice HOLMES delivered the opinion of the Court. 1 The case is one of a class of suits brought by the county of Westmoreland in the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania against a number of coal mining companies and their principal stockholders for the purpose of enjoining the further prosecution of suits in state courts brought by those companies and their principal stockholders against the county for alleged waste of coal on public lands. The District Court dismissed the bill. A decree was entered accordingly, and the case comes here on appeal. 2 The contention of the appellant is that the ground upon which the injunction was denied was erroneous, and that the case presented a case within the reason of Southern Pacific Co. v. Bogert, 250 U.S. 483. To the contrary, it is said that the ground upon which the injunction was denied was correct, 4bc0debe42
