A handy application that can quickly disable Windows Vista Aero Glass and automatically re-enable it while specified programs are running. Choose the programs which are allowed to activate the Windows Vista Aero Glass and/or disable the Aero Glass once the selected programs are running. Aerodisabler will run under Windows Vista and later in the task bar. A: I wrote a free and open-source app called Aero Glass Disable Express. I don't offer support for it other than via my contact page, but it is definitely useful. A: Aero Glass is not Windows Vista's default look anymore, but you can still disable it. Install Aero Glass Control. It's a tiny, safe utility that disables the windows appearance automatically. Also, you can control the Windows appearance using startup options; they can be placed in a.reg file to be loaded at boot time or to be loaded at login time. Startup options can be used to disable Aero Glass and to prevent programs from disabling it. . The two big questions about the NHL are: Can Zidar break out? Can he stay healthy enough to do so? So far this season, Zidar has found the back of the net five times, including two game-winners. He was a dynamic player for the University of New Hampshire, where he was named to the Hockey East All-Rookie team as a freshman after registering 43 points (11G-32A) in his only season at the U-MASS program. "I think my speed is what's really shown up on the ice, but every game is totally different," Zidar said. "I think my skating, everything can still improve, so I think every game is totally different and I'm trying to play the best I can, play smart, have fun, use my speed." Based on what we've seen so far, the Flyers should be confident that Zidar will be ready to make a difference right away. He's got the speed to be a game-breaker, and with a few tweaks, he'll be the physical force the Flyers have been missing. 09e8f5149f
