Article content The federal Green party is now mulling whether to add the option for its candidates to include gender-neutral pronouns for respondents on surveys. For some years now, the Green Party of Canada has been sending a survey to its candidates who are eligible to run for office so as to get an idea of how their attitudes and positions align with the party's stated values. We apologize, but this video has failed to load. tap here to see other videos from our team. Try refreshing your browser, or Survey of candidates across Canada takes stock of values Back to video Now, the party is seeking to garner some data from as many respondents as possible. The survey poses questions such as "What do you think of the Canadian flag?" and "What are your views on abortion?" but also some that may have a more gender-sensitive slant. When respondents are asked what pronouns they use to identify themselves (they, him, her, their, or other), the party is seeking to see if there is a "substantial number" of non-binary people who identify as Green. Should the party feel that it's a "viable new (or strengthening existing) constituency" it may want to alter its values to better reflect the diversity of people in Canada, as the Green Party of England and Wales has suggested. St. Paul burglar's trial delayed A preliminary hearing for a man accused of burglarizing a St. Paul home in June has been rescheduled for Sept. 15 at the Washington County Courthouse. Willie Thomas, 21, is accused of stealing more than $2,000 in electronics from a home in the 19300 block of Hummel Avenue. His preliminary hearing had been scheduled for July 23. Thomas turned himself in on July 3 after police found him in an apartment in south Minneapolis. In light of his surrender, the case was delayed to September to give prosecutors time to review the case file and the evidence. Thomas is charged with second-degree burglary and theft of a firearm. The maximum prison term for second-degree burglary is five years, and he could be sentenced to up to 10 years for the theft charge if he is d0c515b9f4

The facts and circumstances of others he may not, by his very participation in the hearing, prevent from being heard, regardless of his own zeal or his willingness to spend his own money in a contest. His right to be heard in no way, of course, precludes the court from giving appropriate *381 weight to his views on the size of the fines which may be imposed." If we were to adopt the theory of the appellant's position, the very purpose of a trial would be destroyed. One would have to sit in silence and watch the trial judge reason with others as to the justice of the case before him. Reversed. All Justices concur except ROSSMAN, J., not sitting. Q: excel vba array change value I have a problem, i tried to use function for change value of array but it didn't worked. So i decided to post it here. Code Function intTest()

'intTest Range("A1").ClearContents Range("A1").Value = "1" Range("B1").Value = "2" Range("A1").Value = WorksheetFunction.Sum(Range("A1:A2")) End Function Sub Test()
'Test Dim intTest() As Double intTest = Array(1, 2, 3) Range("D5").Value = intTest(1) End
Sub Expected result: intTest(1)=3 intTest(2)=1 + 2 = 3 intTest(3)=1 + 2 + 3 =

[url= analysis[/url] Hello, Yesterday when I was downloading Activation code on my pc from the internet I went to download a torrent. While downloading the torrent I saw a warning message saying that I may not open it after unzipping. I am very new to this so I don't know what to do so that my activation code will be downloaded in a safe way. Can anyone help?
